

Food Chains and Webs Video Quiz

Directions: Fill in the blank with the correct answer.

1. An _____ is a place where plants and animals interact with the environment.
2. Green plants are also called _____ because they make their own food.
3. Animals that cannot produce their own food are called _____.
4. _____ are organisms that eat other animals.
5. A food chain or food _____ illustrates the feeding relationships in a place.
6. Each level in a food chain is called a _____ level.
7. When we eat something, we are taking in _____ and energy.
8. _____ are important organisms that break down dead organisms.
9. When one organism eats another organism, a great deal of energy is lost in the form of _____.
10. An energy pyramid shows that _____ energy is available at each step up the pyramid.

